

Curriculum Vita of Stephen Jay Silver

Personal Information

- Born: Washington, D.C., December 26, 1943
- Addresses:
 - Home --1865 Cat Tail Row, Charleston, SC 29407; (843) 766-9943
 - Business -- School of Business Administration, The Citadel, Charleston, SC 29409 (843) 953-5163; Fax: (843) 953-6764
- E-mail: silvers@citadel.edu and steve.silver@knology.net

Education

- B.S. Mathematics, University of Maryland, 1966.
- M.A. Economics, Queens College, New York, 1972.
- Ph.D. Economics, University of Maryland, College Park, 1983.

Dissertation:

Title: A Feed and Livestock Model of the United States with an Application to the Possible Effects on U.S. Agriculture of Large-Scale Corn Alcohol Production.

Advisor: Clopper Almon

Additional Fields: International Economics, Monetary Economics and Applied Microeconomics.

Work Experience

College Teaching

- Visiting Faculty in Finance at Webster University in Shanghai and Shenzhen, China, Oct. – Dec. 2002.
- Fulbright Visiting Lecturer, Faculty of Economics and Management, University of Yaoundé II, Cameroon 1994-95
- Associate and Full Professor, Department and School of Business Administration, The Citadel, Charleston, SC 1990-present.
- Assistant and Associate Professor, Department of Economics and Business, Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, VA 1988-90.
- Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Bentley College, Waltham, MA. 1982-88.

Courses taught include:

Principles of Economics, elementary and advanced business statistics and econometrics, managerial economics, mathematical economics, business forecasting, international economics, international business, finance, and production and operations management.

International trips conducted

Undergraduate travel and study trip to Costa Rica: 66 students, five faculty members for three weeks, Maymester 1997

MBA travel and study trip to Costa Rica (redirected from China due to SARS): two weeks, Maymester 2003.

MBA study trip to Miami, December 2004 (forthcoming), 30 students and two faculty members

Relevant research experience

Economist, Institute for Defense Analyses (I.D.A.), 1974-76; performed economic analysis in the Khmer Republic (Cambodia) 1974-75.

Relevant consulting experience

Macroeconomic assessment of Burundi, for DEG, Louis Berger International, Inc., May 1988.

Relevant administrative experience

- Program officer and administrative officer, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Chad, 1972-74.
- Directed two travel/study abroad experiences; made all arrangements, including air reservations, hotel accommodations, meals, etc. and accompanied and taught students.
- Serve as director of international experiences and the MBA international concentration, The Citadel School of Business Administration
- Direct international internships of students in the MBA program.

Relevant Publications/presentations

"Nominal and Real Wage Cyclicalities during the Interwar Period," with S. Sumner, Southern Economic Journal, January 1995.

"Real Wages, Employment, and the Phillips Curve," with S. Sumner, Journal of Political Economy, June 1989.

"Forecasting with Leading Indicators: On the Choice and Use of Appropriate Leading Indicator Series," a Chapter in Leading Economic Indicators: New Approaches and Forecasting Records, Kajari Lahiri and Geoff Moore, editors, Cambridge U. Press, 1991.

Co-author with Thomas Kindel and Ronald Zigli of a series of papers based on surveys of Chinese and American MBA students on management styles across cultures, 2003 and 2004. Results presented at three conferences.

"Economic Development Efforts in Sub-Saharan Africa: Implications for Business Prospects," proceedings of the annual conference of the Academy of Business and Administrative Sciences, Budapest, Hungary, July 1998.

"Recent Economic Development Efforts in Sub-Saharan Africa," presented at the Eighth World Congress of Social Economics, Charleston, SC, Aug., 1996.

Relevant faculty development activities

Attended FDIB program in International Finance at the Univ. of South Carolina; June, 2006
Attend Chinese language classes, College of Charleston, 2002-2006
Workshops in the use of Dreamweaver, Photoshop, PowerPoint and WebCT

Professional Affiliations

American Economic Association, Southeastern Decision Sciences Institute, SE Institute for Operations Research and the Management Sciences (SE/Informs), South Carolina World Trade Center, Charleston Foreign Affairs Forum, Charleston-Trident Chamber of Commerce, National Peace Corps Association.

Honors and Awards

- Recipient of the MBA Teacher of the Year Award, 2001-2002, as voted by the MBA students.
- Chair, Faculty Council, AY 2001-02
- Recipient of the MBA Teacher of the Year Award, 1999-2000, as voted by the MBA students.
- Inducted into the national French Honor society, 1999.
- Inducted into the national Spanish Honor society, 1997.

Additional Skills

Foreign Languages: Fluent in French and Spanish, read Italian and Portuguese fluently; currently studying Chinese.

Computer languages/hardware: Excellent in FORTRAN and BASIC programming languages, MS Word, Excel, SPSSx and MINITAB; maintain personal website at www.citadel.edu/faculty/silver