I'm the Alltel sales representative for personal lines for your company. While I'm happy to process discount requests for existing Alltel customers, my primary objective is selling additional services and setting up new accounts. Therefore, if you or your co-workers activate new lines through me there is no activation fee, and the 20% discount is added at the point of sale. In addition, accessories are discounted at 10% and there is special phone pricing available. If you know anyone who's going to an Alltel store, to make purchases, please give them my number.
