

PRIVACY POLICY

The Citadel Career Center is committed to protecting the privacy of its students and alumni regarding personal information. Certain services that The Citadel Career Center contractually provides for use by Citadel students and alumni require that you create an account to use them. These currently include Sigi3 (career interest inventory), InterviewStream (interview practice), and hireLINK (online job board, resume database & more).

Access to student information is governed by The Citadel and federal policy under the Federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Information collected by The Citadel Career Center is used to assist us in developing and enhancing appropriate programs and services.

The Career Center abides by the principles set forth by NACE and expects employers who use its services to adhere to EEOC guidelines and offer employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, national origin, disability, or citizenship unless legally required.

By using Career Center systems, you release The Citadel Career Center and The Citadel, our agents and employees, from claims, demands, and damages (actual and consequential, direct and indirect of every kind and nature, known and unknown) arising out of or in any way connected with use of the systems.

The Citadel Career Center does not endorse any particular employer or graduate school. We share job and graduate study information with students/alumni of The Citadel from interested employers and graduate schools. The Career Center also provides links to other career-related websites for ease of access by our students/alumni and is not responsible for the contents of these linked sites. In the unlikely event that a problem is encountered with an organization listed through our office or through a linked website, please notify The Citadel Career Center promptly.