

Name _____

CGC Graduate Student Award Criteria

One award will identify a degree-seeking graduate student who demonstrates an extraordinary ability to contribute to the growth and development of graduate education. This can be in the form of participation in research, performance in the classroom, mentoring other students, or some other activity.

Nominee _____

Paper or poster presentation at a professional conference _____

Invited presentation _____

Leadership role in student organization _____

Evidence of Professional Development publication (author or coauthor with or without faculty in journal or book project)

creation of a product or technique in industry _____

Recognition by department for outstanding paper, project, or thesis

Collaboration with faculty member on a grant _____

Invited presentation by community organization _____

Served in consultant role for a company or agency _____

Selection for other awards

Academic _____

Professional _____

Recognized for contributions to an organization or agency _____

Grade Point Average _____

some quality, characteristic or experience not listed that demonstrates applicant is worthy of award
