

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS & PAPERS

The Citadel Intelligence and Homeland Security Enterprise Conference September 16, 17 and 18, 2015 Charleston Marriott 170 Lockwood Blvd., Charleston, SC

Individual Paper Presentations: Submissions for a regular session presentation must include a title and abstract of no more than 200 words, along with author information.

Complete Thematic (Academic or Government) Panel: Roundtable and panel proposal are welcome. For a thematic panel, you must submit titles, abstracts (no more than 200 words) and author information for all papers together. The panel must deal directly with the topics and issues related to the conference.

Roundtable Sessions (Academic or Government): These sessions consist of three to four presenters discussing related topics. Submissions for a roundtable must include a title and abstract of no more than 200 words, along with participant information. Roundtable sessions are generally less formal than panels.

Student Poster Session: Poster Presentations: Submissions for poster presentations require only a title and abstract of no more than 200 words, along with author information. Posters should display theoretical work or methods, data, policy analyses, or findings in a visually appealing poster format that will encourage questions and discussion about the material.

SUBMISSION DEADLINES:

Thematic panels, individual paper, and roundtable abstracts are due on or before: July 15, 2015. Abstracts should be submitted to Michael Brady at bradym1@citadel.edu.

Publication Option: Complete papers will be considered for publication as part of conference proceedings if submitted on or before September 1, 2015.
