COMMENCEMENT WEEK
INFORMATION FOR GRADUATES AND THEIR FAMILIES

SOUTH CAROLINA CORPS OF CADETS
COLLEGE OF GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

General Information

This guide has been specially prepared for the families of students who will be participating in Commencement Exercises – both for the Corps of Cadets and the College of Graduate and Professional Studies (CGPS) – and for the graduates. This information answers most of the commonly asked questions and gives a detailed schedule of all Commencement Week events.

Suggested arrival times and appropriate dress are provided for each event, but realize that these are only suggestions. Weather and traffic/parking may necessitate adjustments. Inclement weather plans are also listed for each event.

If, after reading this information, you still have specific questions, please contact:

Admission Tickets: Admission Tickets are required only for Commencement Exercises for the Corps of Cadets on Saturday, May 6. Ten (10) tickets will be distributed to each cadet. December graduates and fifth-year seniors off campus need to contact Cadet Activities for tickets beginning April 17. Although not requiring a ticket, there is limited seating at the Baccalaureate Service in Summerall Chapel.

Dress: The importance of the week's ceremonies will dictate the dress for specific events. The weather should be considered when packing. Although not required, a coat and tie for gentlemen would be appropriate for Commencement Exercises. Casual attire is appropriate for most other events.

Food/Beverages and Shopping: The Snack Bar, located to the left of Mark Clark Hall, offers a wide variety of quick foods, breakfast items and hot meals. The Gift Shop, located at the front entrance of Mark Clark Hall and in the Holliday Alumni Center, provides numerous shopping opportunities for Citadel families and friends. Extended hours of each facility for Commencement Week will be posted.

No food or beverages may be brought into McAlister Field House for the Corps of Cadets or CGPS Commencement Exercises nor to the Baccalaureate Service or Commissioning Ceremonies in Summerall Chapel.

Handicapped Guests: Handicapped Seating at Commencement Exercises for the Corps of Cadets and the College of Graduate and Professional Studies will be in a special area on the main floor of the Field House. For questions regarding handicapped seating, contact Cadet Activities or CGPS at the numbers above. On-campus handicapped parking will be available for all events.

Parking: As with most major events on campus, parking will be at a premium for Commencement Week. A campus map showing on- and off-campus parking areas is included in this guide. Public Safety officers and cadet traffic details will direct you to the closest available spaces. Campus shuttle vans will operate from near Johnson Hagood Stadium to the campus for CGPS Commencement Exercises Sunday afternoon and for the Cadet Commencement Exercises Saturday morning. No parking is allowed in Hampton Park. For information concerning handicapped parking, contact Public Safety.

Photography: The Citadel has contracted with a professional photographer to take color pictures of each individual receiving a diploma. Graduates will be contacted by the firm concerning the purchase of photos. The Citadel Alumni Association (843.953.7696) will offer video highlights of the week's cadet activities. Information on purchase of these videotapes will be sent to cadet families. Families are asked not to come forward to take family snapshots or video during Commencement Exercises or Commissioning Ceremonies.

Restrooms/Water: A campus map is included in this guide which shows the location of restrooms and water availability.

IMPORTANT! ALL ATTENDEES ARE ASKED TO CHECK THE CITADEL WEBSITE (WWW.CITADEL.EDU) FOR POSSIBLE REVISIONS TO THIS SCHEDULE PRIOR TO COMMENCEMENT DAY.
