

Jacqueline A. Rogers

Partner, Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP

Jacqueline is a partner in the firm's Corporate Litigation Group, represents companies and their management and boards in high-stakes mergers and acquisitions litigation, corporate and stockholder disputes, and complex commercial litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery. She also has substantial experience litigating and providing advice concerning various statutory proceedings under the Delaware General Corporation Law, such as indemnification and advancement suits, stockholder appraisal actions, dissolution proceedings, litigation involving contested director elections, and books and records demands. Jacqueline is an Executive Editor of the highly regarded Corporate and Commercial Practice in the Delaware Court of Chancery (Lexis Law Publishing), which is recognized as a leading authority on Delaware corporate and commercial practice and has been cited by the Delaware courts in approximately 500 published opinions.

