

Jeff Reeves, Director, South Carolina Middle Market Banking, South State Bank

Jeff serves as Director of Middle Market Banking for South Carolina at South State Bank. In this role, he works with a team focused on delivering capital structure solutions, a best-in-class treasury platform and risk management solutions for businesses. As a 32-year veteran of the banking industry, he has had the opportunity to work with cross functional and geographically diverse teams throughout the Southeast. Jeff has served a variety of industries, including manufacturing, transportation, financial services and construction.

Jeff currently serves on the Riverbanks Zoo Commission, as well as the legislative affairs committee of the S.C. Chamber of Commerce. He also served on the Palmetto Health Children's Hospital board in various capacities.