

Julie Albrecht, CFO, Sonoco

Julie is a finance professional with over 30 years of diverse experience. She is a graduate of Wake Forest University with a B.S. in Accounting. Julie spent four years in audit with PricewaterhouseCoopers and obtained her CPA during this time. In 1996, Julie joined Coltec Industries where she worked for almost 19 years after Coltec was acquired by Goodrich Corporation which was then acquired by United Technologies. While at Coltec/Goodrich/UTC, Julie held various roles in Treasury, Business Unit Finance and FP&A. In March 2015, Julie became the VP, Finance, Investor Relations and Treasurer at Esterline Technologies, a $2 billion aerospace company based in Bellevue, WA.

Julie joined Sonoco as Corporate VP, Treasurer and Assistant CFO in March 2017 and became Sonoco's Chief Financial Officer on March 1, 2019. She is on the Board of the South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics Foundation as well as on the Board of Trustees of the Central Carolina Community Foundation.