

Laurie Champion

Laurie Champion is a managing director and global client executive with Marsh. She is a recognized expert in corporate risk management, insurance and related matters, enterprise risk management, and risk strategy. She works with executive teams, boards, and risk management teams for some of Marsh's largest clients. Laurie is experienced in operational excellence and team leadership, has lived and worked outside the U.S., and has worked with multinational clients throughout her career.

Over her career, Laurie has worked extensively in the manufacturing, technology, financial, and energy sectors. Among other roles, she served previously as head of risk management for Ford Motor Company and as VP risk management for Coca-Cola Enterprises.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/laurie-champion-ab10b75/>

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATIONS

- AB in English and German, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor
- MBA in Finance and International Business, University of Michigan
- Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU); Associate in Risk Management-ERM (ARM-e)
- Six Sigma trained
- Certificate in Director Education, National Association of Corporate Directors

AFFILIATIONS

- Risk and Insurance Management Society – prior service on RIMS ERM and Standards & Practices committees with input into COSO, ASIS, and ISO ERM standards.
- Charter member, Association for Federal Enterprise Risk Management.
- Georgia State University – Risk Management Foundation trustee; prior board chair.
- Carnegie Mellon University – CRO Certification instructor in risk mitigation strategy.
- Boy Scouts of America – national, council, and unit service.
- National Jewish Hospital (Denver) – national trustee.