

MARK N. DAJANI

Senior Vice President of Global Business Services and Chief Information Officer, Carlsberg Group

Mark Dajani served as Senior Vice President of Global Business Services and Chief Information Officer at Carlsberg Group, based in Copenhagen, Denmark. In this role, Mark was responsible for the company's business services, including information technology and digital transformation.

Prior to Carlsberg, Mark was the Head of Global Business Services for Mondelēz International in Chicago, Illinois. He was responsible for all aspects of Information Technology, Process Excellence, and Enterprise Shared Services. He was appointed to this expanded role upon the launch of Mondelēz International in October 2012, following the separation of the Kraft Foods North American grocery business.

Before joining Kraft Foods in 2004, Mark spent 13 years at Altria, where he led several functions within the Information Systems and Supply Chain organizations. He began his career constructing and managing manufacturing facilities for Frito-Lay, Inc. and the Perrier Group of America.

Currently, he is pursuing his passion for sailing; along with his wife, Suzie, and "Noora the Explorer" dog, he is sailing extensively, including continental crossings.

Mark holds an undergraduate degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master of Business Administration.

THE CITADEL
DIRECTORS' INSTITUTE

