

TAMMY FINLEY

Of Counsel, Gentry Locke Law Firm
Former Executive Vice President, General
Counsel and Corporate Secretary Advance
Auto Parts, Inc

Tammy Finley is Of Counsel at the Gentry Locke law firm in Roanoke, Virginia. Previously, she served as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Advance Auto Parts, Inc. (NYSE: AAP), a leading provider of automotive aftermarket parts, accessories, batteries and maintenance items. Advance operates over 4500 stores in U.S. and Canada, serving both the do-it-yourself and professional installer customer markets. In her executive role, Tammy oversaw Advance's legal function, including corporate compliance and ethics. She also served as Corporate Secretary, advising Advance's Board of Directors on corporate governance matters.

Tammy held multiple senior leadership positions at Advance during her 25+ year tenure, including overseeing its legal, compliance, human resources and communications functions, as well as risk management, ESG strategy/disclosures and community/government relations. Tammy was a labor and employment attorney with The Center for Employment Law, PC prior to joining Advance. She also clerked with the Virginia Supreme Court.

Tammy received her law degree from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William & Mary. She received her undergraduate degree from Virginia Tech.

Tammy served on the Board of Directors of American National Bankshares, Inc. (NASDAQ: AMNB) from September 2017 to April 2024 when AMNB merged with Atlantic Union Bankshares Corporation (NYSE: AUB). She served on AMNB's Compensation, Audit, Risk (Chair) and Technology (Chair) committees. She currently serves on several private/nonprofit boards, including the Hotel Roanoke Foundation, Inc., the Virginia Western Community College Educational Foundation, the Taubman Museum of Art, the Virginia Chamber of Commerce, where she co-chairs its Legal Institute, and the Blue Ridge Innovation Corridor

THE CITADEL
DIRECTORS' INSTITUTE

