

Lewis S. Moore, PLS- Principal

Project Role: Project Manager- Land Surveyor
Forsberg Engineering & Surveying, Inc.

Lewis Moore has been providing Land Surveying Services in and around the greater Charleston area and Lowcountry for over 38 years. His responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the surveying coordination for all field-surveying projects, personnel, and project scheduling. Lewis has professional experience in boundary surveys, topographic surveys, horizontal and vertical control surveys, and construction layout, including corridor route surveys for design of roadways, and utility improvements; road and utility asbuilts and right-of-way platting. He provided surveying services on the Arthur Ravenel (Cooper River) Bridge Third-Party Quality Assurance Monitoring Survey and Quality Assurance Survey for US Highway 17 North and Hungry Neck Boulevard overpass.

Relevant Projects:

- City of Charleston, SC
International African American Museum (IAAM)
Role on project: Surveyor of record- Boundary and topographic survey
- City of Charleston, SC
Gaillard Municipal Center - #2 George Street
Role on project: Boundary and Topographic survey, field coordinator and surveyor.
- Charleston County, SC
Charleston County Fire Station 11, Charleston, SC
Role on Project: Surveyor of Record - Boundary and Topographic survey, field coordinator and surveyor.
- City of Charleston, SC
White Point Gardens and High Battery Renovations
Role on Project: Surveyor of Record - Boundary and Topographic survey, field coordinator and surveyor.

Position with Firm

Principal Partner
Project Manager, Land Surveyor

Education

Diploma
St. Thomas Moore

Years of Experience

Total: 38 years
With Forsberg Engineering & Surveying, 38

Registrations / Certifications

Professional Land Surveyor:
South Carolina #21621

Affiliations

Coastal Chapter- SC Society of Professional Land Surveyors- Past
President

South Carolina Society of Professional Land
Surveyors, Past President, Past Secretary
Past Treasurer

National Society of Professional Land
Surveyors

Office Location

Charleston, SC