

Dan Garcia is the President of C.W. Matthews Contracting Company, the largest Heavy Highway construction company based in Georgia, with revenues in excess of $700 Million per year. His expertise involves all facets of construction management, but his passion for the industry comes from building projects that have an impact in the community and for the people constructing these projects.

Dan was born in Caracas, Venezuela and moved to the United States at the age of 17 to attend The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina. After graduating in 1996 with a B.S. in Civil Engineering, Dan began his career in construction working in several states before moving to Georgia in 2002. In 2010, Dan completed his MBA from Mercer University.

Dan currently serves as a board member for the Georgia Department of Natural Resources and the Georgia Highway Contractors Association. He volunteers his time serving at several non-profit organizations including Youth in Mission and Extra Special People. In addition, he also serves as a board member for North Cobb Christian School. Dan attends St. Joseph Catholic Church in Marietta, Georgia. Dan has been married to his wife Debbie for 25 years and they have 5 children.
