Women’s Leadership Series

Workshop 1 - Leading with Values: Authentic, Values-Based Leadership

Authentic leaders are those who are true to themselves and the principles that guide them. They use their strongest values to guide their daily actions, which enables them to earn the trust of their employees, peers and shareholders - creating an approachable work environment. Leading authentically can help you be a more effective, compassionate and fulfilled leader. Are you leading authentically? Come learn firsthand with Ericka Plater, CEO/Principal Consultant at Groundwell Collective.

In this workshop you will:
• Gain an understanding of who you are and what you value
• Articulate the personal values from which you want to lead
• Define the type of leader you want to be
• Identify barriers to authentic leadership
• Practice leading authentically

Audience: Female leaders, professionals in a leadership role, individual contributors and those seeking to become more effective leaders

Duration: The program will take place July 12, 2023 from 1:00-5:00 p.m. on The Citadel campus. Light refreshments will be provided as well as all workshop materials.

Cost: $250/workshop or $900 for package of 4 workshops
