Women’s Leadership Series

Workshop 3 - Leading through Relationships: Emotional Intelligence

The key to leadership is developing successful relationships. Leaders are able to recognize and manage their own and others’ emotions. Their people feel recognized, valued, supported and inspired. How emotionally intelligent are you? Are you developing the relationships you need to be effective? Come learn firsthand with Maryalice Morro, Adjunct Faculty at The Citadel.

In this workshop you will:
• Explore the components of emotional intelligence and why it matters
• Assess and gain insight into your emotional intelligence
• Evaluate different leaders’ emotional intelligence
• Create a plan to develop your empathy and relationship management
• Develop action steps for increasing your self-awareness
• Practice leading with emotional intelligence

Audience: Female leaders, professionals in a leadership role, individual contributors and those seeking to become more effective leaders

Duration: The program will take place July 26, 2023 from 1:00-5:00 p.m. on The Citadel campus. Light refreshments will be provided as well as all workshop materials.

Cost: $250/workshop
