

William M. Patterson, Ph. D.
pattersonwm84@gmail.com

PROFILE: US diplomat and scholar with expertise in international development and humanitarian assistance with over 25 years of professional experience with increasing responsibilities in Asia, Africa, Latin American and the Middle East.

COUNTRY EXPERIENCE AND LANGUAGE

Long-term: Senegal, El Salvador, Zimbabwe, Nepal, Egypt, Pakistan, Iraq

Languages: Spanish; French

Executive Experience for United States Agency for International Development (USAID)

Deputy Mission Director, Iraq 2016-2018: Provided overall strategic vision for US government priorities in Iraq, including assistance to stabilization of areas liberated from ISIS, economic reform, and citizen-responsive governance with an assistance portfolio of over $500 million in fiscal year 2017.

Management and Technical Experience for USAID:

Libya February 2019 – August 2019

Egypt 2012 – 2016

Pakistan 2011-2012

Nepal 2007 – 2011

Zimbabwe 2005 – 2007

El Salvador 2001 – 2005

Washington 2000 – 2001

Teaching Experience:

Governor John C. West Chair of International Politics and American Government,
Citadel Military College of South Carolina, August 2020 – present
Citadel Courses taught:

PSCI 433: Undergraduate Global Issues; PSCI 574: Graduate Global Issues;
SCSS 302-03: International Conflict and Global Justice; PSCI 573: Politics of Economic Development

Assistant Sociology Professor, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 1994 – 2000

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Development Sociology, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, 1984

M.S. Rural Sociology, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, 1974

B.A. Sociology, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, 1973