

AREAS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

1. Pre-Parade

- a. Members of the guard team posted at 1500 are required to be in the prescribed parade uniform.
- b. The OG will ensure that all members of the guard team are aware of their duties and execute them accordingly.
- c. Members of the Guard Team are forbidden from allowing civilians/visitors into the barracks during parade.

2. Parade

- a. The OG positions the CG in the main sally port of the barracks. After the battalion has marched out of the barracks, the CG will close/lock the gate until the parade is complete or otherwise directed by a member of the Commandant's Staff. The CG will maintain an appropriate posture as a guard at the gate for the duration of the parade, except during the playing of the National Anthem, at which time they will come to attention, face the colors, salute on the first note of the music, cut on the last note of the music, and return to an appropriate posture.
- b. The OG will position the SG in the sally port in which the battalion will reenter the barracks after Pass-in-Review. After the announcement of Pass-in-Review by the Regimental Commander, the SG will unlock/open the sally port gate. They will remain in the sally port until the last company has marched back into battalion at which time they will close/lock the sally port gate and return to the main sally port.

3. Post-Parade

- a. No civilians/visitors are permitted in the barracks unless authorized by a Battalion TAC Officer.
- b. Guard Team members will return to their regular duties after the battalion has reentered the barracks. Posted guard team members will change into the uniform of the day as prescribed by the OD/JOD or remain in the parade uniform until properly relieved.

4. Football Games

- a. Minimal staffing during football games shall consist of three upper class cadets. Sally port gates shall be locked during the entire game. Any cadet(s) remaining in the barracks during a game should be identified by the respective Executive Officer and a list provided to the ranking member of the guard team PRIOR to march out. This list shall include, name, company, room #, and reason (XMD, Bed rest, Alternate Orders, etc.). Guard teams shall prevent cadets from returning without authorization from the football game.

Appendix F

- b. Cadets without authorization or in a situation that constitutes an emergency, will not be permitted to enter the barracks once the Corps has departed and the gates are secured. Cadets that do return from the game with authorization will be logged into the Officer of the Guard's Journal, if applicable (name, company, CWID, reason for return). As per normal operations, no alumni, guests, or other unauthorized visitors are permitted to enter during this time.

5. Infirmary Guard Post

a. A guard post at the Infirmary is activated/deactivated by special requirement only, and is prescribed by the Operations section, in coordination with the college physician/lead nurse. The Officer of the Day/Junior Officer of the Day will monitor the units assigned to fill the positions required for the duration of the guard assignment. Schedules and reliefs will be monitored/coordinated by the assigned Bn CSM and Medical Staff.
