

Safety Gram

The Citadel, Military College of South Carolina

Date: October 2017

The Very First Citadel Safety Challenge Coin Presentation

DESCRIPTION: Friday 6 October was a very special day at the Citadel. The very first Safety Challenge Coin was presented to Cadet Lt. Col. Grace Jenkins of the 3rd Battalion Murray Barracks for her outstanding performance during a recent fire evacuation drill. Dave Orr, Director of Environmental Health and Safety at the Citadel is shown presenting the challenge coin to Cadet Lt. Col. Jenkins.

Cadet Lt. Col, Jenkins exhibited a sense of urgency, demonstrated outstanding knowledge of emergency evacuation procedures, coordinated accountability procedures, and under her leadership directed battalion staff on an efficient and expedited evacuation of 425+ cadets in record time. She has set the bar for future barracks drills, which would have saved many cadet's lives.

GREAT
JOB

