Employment

The Citadel Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, August 2010 to present.

The Citadel Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, August 2004 to August 2010.

Relevant Professional Experience

Office of the Secretary of Defense, United States Department of Defense. Presidential Management Intern (P.M.I.). January 1991 to February 1993.

November 1992 – February 1993, worked in the Russia, Eurasia and East European Affairs Office in OSD. My duties consisted of preparing extensive briefing books for high level US delegations visiting recently democratized East European countries. The objectives of these visits were to promote extensive military cooperation between the United States and the various East European governments. Emphasis was placed on encouraging the development of civilian-military relations.

June – October 1992, worked in the Environmental Policy Office in OSD. The focus of my assignment was on accelerating the environmental restoration of both closing and non-closing military installations. This was done in conjunction with the Armed Services and state and federal environmental regulators.

March - May 1992, worked in an outside rotational assignment with the US Environmental Protection Agency, Region 9, in San Francisco, CA. I worked in the Federal Facilities Branch of the Hazardous Waste Division. The primary focus of my assignment was on the environmental restoration of military installations scheduled for closure or realignment.

December 1991 – February 1992, worked in the Program Assessment and Evaluation (PA&E) branch, Europe and Pacific Forces, in OSD. The focus of my assignment was providing fiscal guidance to the Armed Services and OSD coordination on Special Operations Force structuring and DOD's contribution to the counter drug effort.

August – November 1991, worked in the Multilateral Negotiations Office of the Office of Secretary of Defense. The main focus of my assignment was to coordinate Department of Defense policy on United Nations First Committee issues and represent DOD at the interagency committee meetings that formulated the US Government's positions. I also spent two weeks in New York as a Department of Defense representative to the US Delegation to the UN First Committee.

June - July 1991, worked in the Public Employees Roundtable (PER). PER is a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote both the value of public service and the importance of public servants. During the two months, I coordinated an outreach program and wrote numerous articles.

February - May 1991, worked in Joint Chiefs of Staff, J-5 Policy Division. Focus of my assignment was on Persian Gulf issues pertaining to Operation Desert Storm and Operation Provide Comfort. Specifically, I worked on a Persian Gulf Response Task Force and provided support work on POW/EPW and MIA issues.
