Leadership Studies Program

The mission of The Citadel's Leadership Studies program is to enhance the ability of our graduates to perform effectively as principled leaders in their professional roles.

The Leadership Studies Department provides required academic courses for all cadets and offers a minor in leadership studies for undergraduate students.

The Department's Graduate Program offers Certificates in Leadership and Military Leadership, as well as a Master of Science in Leadership to students across the country.

Why Leadership?

This course of study in leadership empowers students to hone skills that will help them navigate the professional workplace and gain a competitive advantage.

The Leadership Studies minor combines an academic understanding of leadership concepts with “hands on” growth experiences that will enable you to accelerate to a high level of skill and competence in your future profession.
