

THE CITADEL SYMPOSIUM ON SOUTHERN POLITICS

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

FEBRUARY 16-17-18, 1978

at

THE CITADEL
CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

*Sponsored by
The Department of Political Science, The Citadel*

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18

PANEL SESSION IV: 9:30-11:00 a.m.

Panel G: Women in Southern Politics (Duckett Hall Auditorium)

Papers:

"Change in Electoral Participation in the South"—Carol A. Cassel, University of Georgia

"Women in Southern Party Politics: Roles, Activities and Futures"—Diane Fowlkes, Georgia State University; Jerry Perkins, Georgia State University; Sue Tolleson Rinehart, Georgia State University

"Southern Protestantism and the Defeat of the Equal Rights Amendment in North Carolina"—Joseph D. Retzer, Davidson College

Discussants:

Virginia Currey, Southern Methodist University and William J. Blough, Winthrop College

Panel H: Black Organizational Effort (Byrd Hall Auditorium)

Papers:

"Patterns of Black Political Organization in the Urban South"—Arnold Vedlitz, Texas A & M University and Richard Murray, University of Houston

"Black Voting Strength in Mississippi: The Unreal Advantage"—Vinton M. Prince, Jr., Shaw University

"Strange Partnership: Blacks and Wallace Supporters—A Study of Political Cooperation in Texas, 1968-1976"—Carl F. Pinkele, Ohio Wesleyan University

Discussants:

K. C. Morrison, Hobart and William Smith Colleges and Earl O. Kline, The College of Charleston

REGISTRATION AND TRAVEL INFORMATION

Registration: The registration fee for the Symposium is $10. The fee covers the two cocktail hours and the Friday buffet luncheon.

Lodging: A bloc of rooms for Symposium participants has been reserved at the Riverview Holiday Inn, 21 S. Savannah Highway at Ashley River. Tel. (803) 556-7110. Rates: single, $24; doubles, $32. Reservation is recommended as soon as possible to guarantee accommodations. Shuttle bus transportation will be provided between the Riverview Holiday Inn and The Citadel.

Transportation: Charleston is served by Delta, Eastern, National, Piedmont, and Southern airlines. Airport limousine service is available to locations in Charleston.

Meals: The faculty dining hall on The Citadel campus serves lunch daily (weekdays), and the canteen in Mark Clark Hall provides short order foods and snacks. Charleston offers a wide variety of restaurants nearby.

Further Information: Please contact Dr. Robert P. Steed, Department of Political Science, The Citadel, Charleston, S.C. 29409. Tel: (803) 577-6900, ext. 2208.